Britain's favourite, Done right. Here's what goes into it.

British Seasonal Potatoes

We source our potatoes from British farms, chosen variety by variety as the seasons change, for chips that are always at their best

Icelandic cold waters

Our fish is caught in the clean, cold waters off Iceland, one of the world's most pristine fishing grounds, renowned for producing exceptional quality

MSC certified sustainable

We're proud to serve only Marine Stewardship Council certified fish, independently verified to come from fisheries that protect the ocean for future generations

Some things shouldn't change

We fry in traditional beef dripping - the northern way. That's what gives our fish and chips their legendary golden crunch, that made Harry Ramsden's world famous.
